

The committee stated that it would like to hear from Sir Edward Carson the views of the Ulster minority and from the two high British officials felt seen through eyes of the military administration.

The invitations sent to each of the three requests them to designate other persons to represent them if they are unable to appear, and states that their full expenses will be paid if they come.

Contest For Tragedy Orphans Set Monday

MARTINEZ, Nov. 23.—The battle for custody of the three children of Chas. Edward Anderson of Richmond, one of the principals in a dual tragedy, which left the children orphans, will open next Monday before Superior Judge R. H. Latimer. That day has been fixed for hearing the petition of Miss Alice Anderson, sister of the children's father in which she asks guardianship of the persons and estate of the children. Anderson, who was estranged from his wife Jessie, shot and killed her and then took his own life.

sources of supply, furnishing liquor of all sorts. A police automobile, it is charged, has been used to distribute the liquor from there. It is alleged to have a regular route, just like a milk wagon, with regular customers.

The operations of that police automobile, according to Commissioner Morse, have been tracked with such persistence that there is no doubt whatever about what it has done or who was connected with it.

PATROLMEN AS BOOZE PEDDLERS.

Another method of distribution has been through patrolmen, it is said, and one of them is alleged to have acquired much talent in making a high grade of home brew.

Patrolmen peddling home brew, or consuming it, are said to be rife. Among other things, the Commissioner is investigating an alleged uniformed consumer of home brew who insulted a woman while under the influence, and ran amuck through his district.

WEST END SALOON RAIDED BY SLEUTHS.

At the same time these charges are made the local police, with Federal officers, raided the saloon of Jack Firpo, 1387 Fifteenth street, where, it is claimed 750 gallons of wine was seized. Firpo is charged with bootlegging.

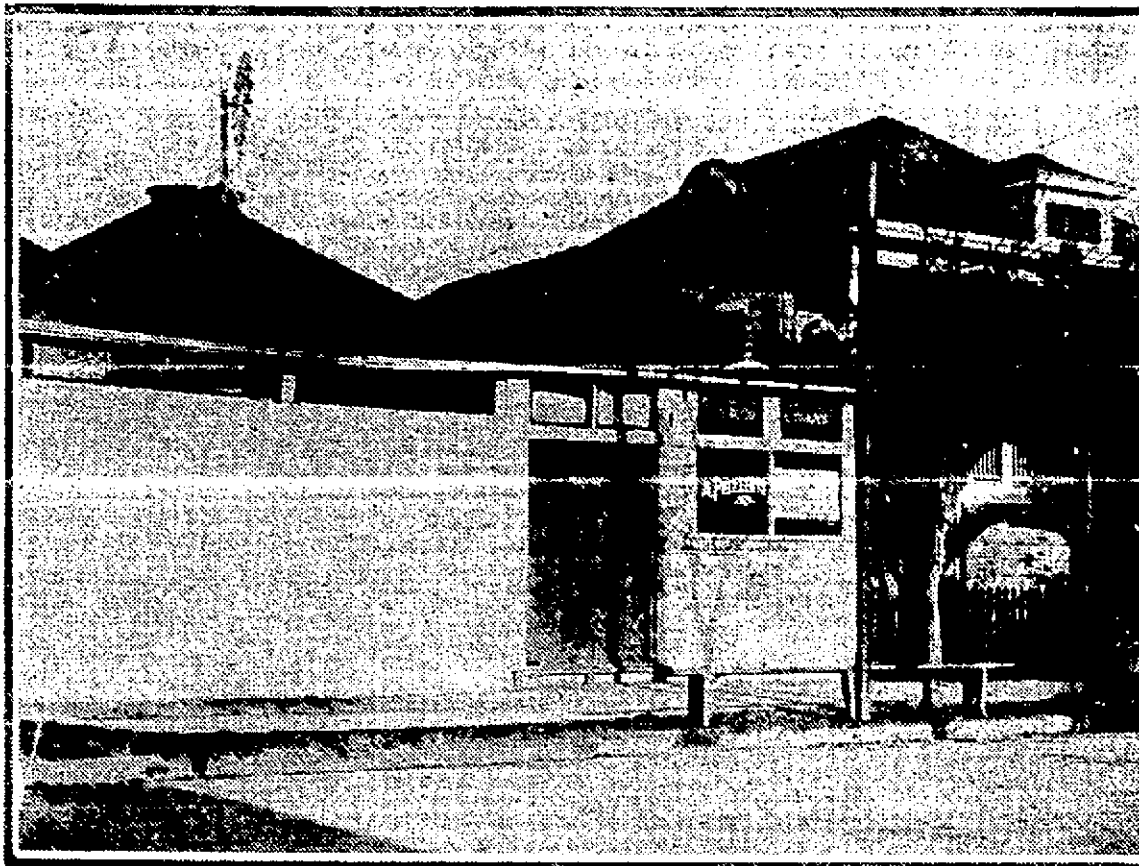

Commissioner Morse says that he has no evidence to connect the booze ring with the one in San Francisco and that he is acting independent of any investigation in that city.

At the Pellegrini roadhouse today the doors were locked and no one was in the "music room" behind or in the dining room where Italian dinners were once served. The Pellegrini home is next door and there it was said by members of the family that Pellegrini has been ill and in a hospital at St. Helena for some time and that the saloon is operated by Alagrino Delmagro. It is never opened except at night, it was said.

High School Students Make Circus Pay

RICHMOND, Nov. 23.—The circus staged in the high school gymnasium last night by the students was so successful that the purchase and installation of the desired printing press for the school seems assured. This in turn will mean a better school paper and a better school, the students believe, and they are greatly pleased with the results of their efforts. The stupendous street parade marched through the streets at 4:30 o'clock, arousing interest in the event; the side shows at the school building opened at 6:30, and the circus proper began at 8:30, lasting through the evening in a series of well performed acts that greatly pleased the crowd that filled the gymnasium.

The old Western Pacific Saloon, known as Pellagrini's roadhouse, a place which Commissioner Morse charges was used as a source of supply by the alleged booze ring operating within the police department. According to Pellegrini, Alagrino Delmagro is proprietor.

Berkeley Purchases Cragmont Rock Park

BERKELEY, Nov. 23.—The city today purchased Cragmont Rock as a city park for $15,000.

The purchasing today comes after the ordinance purchasing the park for $18,450 was blocked a month ago by Councilman Carl Bartlett, who declared the price to be exorbitant.

An ordinance purchasing the park for $18,450 had already been passed to print. Today it was rescinded and a similar ordinance for $15,000 adopted. The vote was unanimous in the city council except for that of Councilman George Schmidt, who was excused from voting, as he is interested in the property. The park property is about five acres.

White Plague Seal Campaign to Begin

ALAMEDA, Nov. 23.—Sale of Anti-Tuberculosis Society Christmas seals will start in Alameda tomorrow, according to announcement made today by Mrs. John Parker, 1712 Palmera street, chairman of the drive. Monday will be school day, when the stamps will be offered for sale in the schools. Next week a house-to-house campaign will be conducted, if the $1000 quota of Alameda is not raised by that time.

RELATION OF TAYLOR DIES.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 23.—Miss Tommie Jount, 75, great-niece of President Zachary Taylor, died here today.

LAY PLAN FOR NEW BOULEVARD

The ordinance declaring intention to widen and extend Seventeenth street from Telegraph avenue to Harrison street was given final passage by the City Council today, and the work of building a new cross-town boulevard in central Oakland is expected to start shortly.

At the instance of Commissioner Edwards, a resolution was adopted requesting the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal railway to extend the Fifty-fifth avenue line to serve the district about the Chevrolet plant and Mills college. Edwards said that hundreds of new homes have arisen in that district.

The traction company asked the council for permission to erect a safety station on the Forty-fourth street, near Ninety-sixth avenue, and a second track on the Thirty-eighth avenue line. Both requests were referred to the Commissioner of Public Health and Safety.

The council appropriated $1700 for relining fire hose. A proposed ordinance, making all persons call themselves "contracting agents" when they do not do the work themselves, was presented in the afternoon by Attorney A. C. Agnew, representing the Oakland Advertising club. The ordinance made the ordinance apply to the cleaning and dyeing business, instead of every business. Cleaners and dyers were present to fight the ordinance and the matter was set over until December 7 for final discussion.

According to Agnew, the purpose of the ordinance is to compel business people to cling to the truth in their advertising and signs, and when a cleaner does not do the work himself he must advertise himself as a "contracting agent." The cleaning and dyeing men say there is no purpose to the ordinance except to clutter up business and make it more complicated. Agnew says it is to make for better business.

Husband Liked Vamp Pictures, Says Wife

Matrimonial agency husband seekers, loaded revolvers and full whiskey bottles caused Mrs. Mary Wilder to file suit for divorce today against Frank Wilder, according to her complaint.

Mrs. Wilder says that the fine pictures and vivid descriptions of beautiful women in a matrimonial magazine caused her husband to lose his love of home and correspond with the advertisers. She further says her husband threatened to kill her.

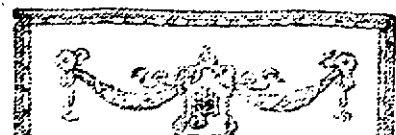

The couple were married in Marysville and separated June 1, 1920.

Two Suspects Held On Hold-Up Charge

Two men, whose names the police refused to reveal, were held in the Berkeley city prison today pending their identification by E. H. Dahlberg, a victim of a hold-up. The late last night was held up and robbed on San Pablo avenue. Dahlberg was robbed by three men at San Pablo avenue and Marin street. The two suspects were taken into custody by the Berkeley police early today.

DISCHARGED RECOVERS.

PARIS, Nov. 23.—Former President Deschanel has completely recovered in health and is looking for an apartment in Paris, to which he intends to return some time during the first two weeks of December, Oeuvre says today.

New Rating System For City Employees

The proposed new efficiency rating system for the city of Oakland, to affect every municipal employee, was described this morning before the City Council by N. W. Cook, municipal efficiency expert, and it was decided to take the matter up for possible passage Friday.

The system, it was emphasized, must have someone in charge to keep the ratings of the various employees, otherwise it is worthless. If properly kept, it was said, the work of the employees would be thoroughly checked.

"It is generally the idea to give it a little shove and let it go at that," said Cook, "but this must not be done."

"What does the Civil Service Employees' Association think of this?" asked Commissioner Morse.

"It has been heartily endorsed by everyone I have spoken to," said Cook.

Hollister Cannery Destroyed By Fire

HOLLISTER, Nov. 23.—The big cannery of the Feltz Brothers was destroyed with a loss of more than $400,000 by a fire which broke out shortly after midnight. The warehouse was nearly filled with tomatoes belonging to various farmers which had just been packed. The cause of the fire is a complete mystery to the owners, as well as the police who are investigating. The blaze had a big start before it was discovered and the firemen experienced considerable difficulty in connecting to the hydrants and running their hose lines.

Why Teeth Stain

You leave a film-coat on them

Most teeth are dimmed more or less by a film. Smokers' teeth often become darkly coated.

That film makes teeth look dingy, and most tooth troubles are now traced to it.

Millions now combat that film in a new, scientific way. This is to offer a test to you, to show the unique results.

You must end film

The film is viscous—you can feel it with your tongue. It clings to teeth, enters crevices and stays.

Ordinary brushing methods leave much of this film intact. So millions find that well-brushed teeth discolor and decay. You must attack film in a better way, else you will suffer from it.

It is the film-coat that discolors, not the teeth. Film is the basis of tartar. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay.

Millions of germs breed in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

Pepsodent
REG. U.S. PAT. OFF.

The New-Day Dentifrice

A scientific film combatant, combined with two other modern requisites. Now advised for daily use by leading dentists everywhere. Supplied by druggists in large tubes.

Efficient ways

Dental science, after painstaking research, has developed effective ways to fight film. The world's highest authorities now approve them, after careful tests.

These ways are combined in a dentifrice called Pepsodent. And leading dentists everywhere now advise its daily use. A ten-day tube is being sent to everyone who asks.

Watch these new effects

One ingredient is pepsin. One multiplies the starch digestant in the saliva to dissolve the starch deposits that cling. One multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva to neutralize mouth acids as they form.

Two factors directly attack the film. One keeps the teeth so highly polished that film cannot easily cling.

Pepsodent has brought a new era in teeth cleaning. It fights the tooth destroyers as was never done before.

Send the coupon for a 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the slimy film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coat disappears.

You will always brush teeth in this new way when you watch the results for a week. Cut out the coupon now.

Betrothal of Prominent Alpha Phi Told

To a score of her most intimate friends assembled at the home of Miss Dart Tinkham in Berkeley yesterday afternoon, the news of the betrothal of one of the most popular girls of the University of California, Miss Josephine Dunne, daughter of San Jose, was broken. Both come of the oldest families in the Santa Clara valley. Miss Dunne is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Dunne. She is a member of the class of '18 University of California, and of the Alpha Phi sorority. She has always been active in social and campus activities, and played the lead in the Junior fair. During the war Miss Dunne went overseas serving as a canteen worker in France.

Frederick Richmond is a son of an old San Jose family and is connected with the firm of Richmond, Chase & Co.

Miss Dunne is a sister of Miss Katherine Dunne, a student at the State University and motored to the bay section for the announcement tea cards telling of the betrothal being held to friends today.

Guests of Miss Tinkham yesterday at the C. & T. Tinkham home in Hillside, were Miss Pauline Wood, Miss Josephine Dunne, Miss Ella Harrows, Miss Marian Kergan, Miss Georgia Richmond, Miss Lorraine Matson, Miss Jean Walsh, Miss Mary Porter, Mrs. Hayward Thomas, Mrs. Floyd Stewart, Mrs. Frederick Duhon, Mrs. James Hamilton, Fred J. Dunne, Mrs. Luther Nichols, Mrs. Edward von Adelung Jr., Mrs. Donald Kieffer, Mrs. John L. Calkins Jr., Mrs. Allen Wood, Mrs. Victor Boyce (Delphine Perrier), Mrs. Ross Mahon, Mrs. J. E. Kinkaid.

Before her departure for the Hawaiian Islands next month when she will accompany her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Ross, on the trip, Mrs. Madeline Ross Clifford entertained this afternoon at tea at her parents' home. The affair also served as a farewell to the hostess to many of her friends though several smaller affairs are to be given within the next fortnight in her honor.

Mrs. Charles McNeill (Anna Kessell) chanced today to honor a bride from New York, Mrs. Richard Lyon, forty invitations having been extended by the hostess to her friends among the college and social sets.

MARRIAGE IN FAIRMONT BALLROOM
The ballroom of the Fairmont hotel was the scene of a smart wedding Saturday when Miss Adeline Bogart, daughter of Mrs. Arthur Wellington Bogart, of Los Angeles, became the wife of Adrian Roger Mowlin of San Francisco. Dr. W. K. Guthrie of the First Presbyterian church in Van Ness avenue performed the service at 3:30 o'clock before a company of fifty-five relatives and intimate friends.

The bride was beautifully gowned in white satin and carried a large bouquet of white and pink roses. The groom wore a tuxedo and carried a small bouquet of white and pink roses.

Mrs. Olympia Goldacena and Miss Martha Templeman of Victoria were the bridesmaids and were gowned similarly in orchid and pink chiffon and their flowers were orchid and pink.

Writers' Clubs Cabaret Is Arranged

Christmas, or no Christmas, the holiday jinks of the California Writers' club, which will assemble all the members and many of their friends at the Young Women's Christian association on Wednesday evening, December 1, at a cabaret entertainment, will be a success.

MISS FRANCES HATCH, member of the Delta Delta Delta sorority, one which kept open house Saturday and where a luncheon preceded the big game. —Boye portrait.

Charles Caldwell Poole, author of the 1920 Behemuth Grove play, has written a simple one for the Christmas party of the club, of which he is an active member. "Sent Up for Life" will have in the cast Miss Joan London and Miss Jessie London, daughters of the late Jack London, Lucien Self and Otis Loeffler.

Charles Keeler will offer a new group of poems. "The Goodbye Olds" will appear in Spanish costume in "Camilla" and "A Don from Acapulco."

Miss Sarah Thurston, No. 1 club member, is to be honored by her fellow writers in having chosen her prize winning story "Making" to be read by Miss Ida Mansfield Wilson. The cast of "A Dark Land Plot," by Caroline Katherine Franklin is not being divulged.

Miss Barbara Bogart dressed in a frock of buttercup yellow, a flower maiden and Walter Mowlin, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Mowlin have gone on a honeymoon trip for their honeymoon and upon their return will reside in a handsome home in Jordan Park, San Francisco.

Mrs. James B. Wiggins of Mariposa avenue gave a real old fashioned tea in honor of her mother who observed her 84th anniversary. More than half a hundred friends of Mrs. Hubbard, mother of the hostess, called November 12 to offer their congratulations.

Chrysanthemums were used throughout the home. Miss C. J. Hooper and Mrs. Lewis presided at the tables while assisting the hostess to receive were Mesdames Bert S. Hubbard, A. J. Snyder, P. A. Carriell, E. N. Lower, Lailotte Stearns, Sydney Smith, Elizabeth Chambers and Maynard Wright.

Dr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Collier have given up their home in Union street, Alameda, and have taken up quarters at the Rex Hotel in Oakland for the winter months. They expect to return to Alameda in the spring.

NOT MUCH TIME TO STUDY OVER THAT CHRISTMAS LIST

stated that they could be taught to speak. Originally the class was held biweekly that the work would be given in the basement of the Oakland high school. When there seemed a possibility that the class would be given up, quarters were fitted up in the Santa Fe school. It has been under the management of the Parent-Teachers association. Some 10 or 12 young boys and girls are at present making slow progress through their infirmity in learning to speak.

To show appreciation of the care and tenderness of the women who have sponsored and protected them, the class this afternoon gave a magic word has inspired a whole series of ideas conceived for the sole purpose of swelling the treasury of Christmas month to witness the culmination of one of these same ideas. December will be launched with a benefit card party in St. Paul's parish house, the gifts to be devoted to the cherished object. The club women are inviting all their friends to share with them in the elaborate function. Miss W. W. Hobbs is president of the ambitious organization.

Students who graduate from Lafayette school at Christmas are not to go without their commencement festivities. The Parent-Teachers association has declared it. The mothers have announced a dancing party in the de Fremery clubhouse before the Christmas school sheepskins are distributed. Parties on so large a scale, however, require a proper amount of finances. The commencement festivities have insured yet another party. A benefit, which party will be given on Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. G. Haver, 1825 Castro street, promising to the graduation function an appropriate amount of ice cream, cake and "fixings."

Women of Middle Age

Owing to modern methods of living not one woman in a thousand approaches this perfectly natural change in her life without experiencing a train of very annoying and sometimes painful symptoms. Those dreadful hot flashes, smothering spells, fainting spells, nervous troubles and irregularities are symptoms that should have prompt attention. These two letters prove what a successful remedy Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is for women at this time of life.

These Two Women Helped During Change of Life.

Taunton, Mass.—"I could not eat or sleep for six months, had fainting spells and could not walk without help for three months, caused by female trouble. My cousin, who was a doctor, told me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it helped me greatly. Then during the Change of Life I used the same remedy. I am seventy years old now and am able to do my own housework and walk one mile to church every Sunday morning and evening. I am recommending the Vegetable Compound to my friends having the same troubles as I had. My remedy is the best on earth. I cannot find words to express my gratitude for it."—Mrs. SUSAN C. STAPLES, 107 B School St., Taunton, Mass.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I want to let you know what good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me. I had organic troubles and am going through the Change of Life. I was taken with a pain in my side and a bad headache. I could not lie down, could not eat or sleep. I suffered something terrible and the doctor's medicine did me no good at all—my pains got worse instead of better. I began taking the Vegetable Compound and felt a change from the first. Now I feel fine and advise any one going through the Change of Life to try it, for it cured me after I had given up all hopes of getting better. I will tell any one who writes to me the good it has done me."—Mrs. MARGARET DANZ, 743 N. 25th St., Philadelphia, Pa.

"Slow Order" Causes Row in Restaurant

BERKELEY, Nov. 22.—When Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Cronin and their 3-year-old baby were kept waiting in a restaurant at 2120 Shattuck avenue for two steaks to be served last night a discussion was precipitated that led to the arrest of the proprietor, John Voros, on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon. Cronin was the accuser. Voros pleaded not guilty this morning before Judge Edgar. The preliminary hearing was set for Friday. After waiting 25 minutes, Cronin declares he and his wife started to retire when they found that their order was just being given to the kitchen. Voros demanded payment for the steaks. When Cronin refused the proprietor picked up a chair with which to strike him, beat him on the knuckles with a butcher knife, grabbed a wrench from his wife and watched the hat from the baby's head.

HAD BAD COUGH AND PAINS IN HER LUNGS

All well now, gaining weight and strength; does own housework

"Last September I took a heavy cold. I kept getting worse until finally I had pains in my bronchial tubes and all through my lungs. I had a bad cough, could not sleep at night, and was so weak that I could hardly stand. I consulted three different doctors and took their medicine, but did not get any better. I suffered for several months. One doctor told me I had a deep cold in the walls of my lungs. Another said I had bronchitis. He kept changing my medicine and burned me all over with electricity.

"I read in the paper about Milks Emulsion helping other people, so I thought I would try it. I was only taken four small bottles, my lungs do not hurt me any more. My cough is gone and I have gained 4 pounds, and I am still gaining. I was able to do the housework today. I have done since last September. In fact, I am now doing my work with pleasure and feel like I am in a dream. I have my health again."—Mrs. Lida E. Schildt, 672 Congress St., Toledo, Ohio.

Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural body action, doing away with all need of pills and physies. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. It helps build flesh and strength, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting diseases.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion. Under this guarantee: "Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded."—Price, 75c and $1.50 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere.—Advertisement.

Make Search For San Jose Girl

SAN JOSE, Nov. 23.—A statewide search was inaugurated today for Jamie Sullivan, 13-year-old daughter of John W. Sullivan, president of the Santa Clara County Bar Association. The child disappeared from her home here Saturday night, but the matter was kept a secret until today, members of her family expecting to find her at the home of some relative.

The girl had been reprimanded by her father for some minor offense. She went to her room and packed some clothing, but had no money. Her absence was discovered about midnight and since that time no trace of her has been discovered, although members of the family, assisted by police and county officers have been frantically searching.

Changes in Motor Laws Are Urged at State Conference

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 23.—Drastic changes in the state motor vehicle law were suggested yesterday by delegates to the state automobile conference which was held in the state capitol.

The conference was attended by representatives of the Good Roads Association, allied automobile industries, state officials, county supervisors and police officers.

The following proposed changes will be brought before specially appointed committees for consideration:

- 1—Equalization of the Lyons tax on auto stages and privately owned machines.
- 2—Persons arrested for speeding shall be tried before nearest magistrate to their residence instead of in the district where the arrest is made.
- 3—Provision giving cities a portion of the motor vehicle license fees.
- 4—Even distribution of weight on trucks.
- 5—Tail lights on trucks to be placed on left hand side only.
- 6—Uniformity in style of warning signs on highways.
- 7—Exhaust whistles for stages legalized.

The recommendations which the committees make on the foregoing proposals will be considered at a second conference to be held in Los Angeles December 21 and 22.

Officials of the conference were elected as follows:

Chairman: Dave E. Smith, Los Angeles; vice-chairman, Robert Martin, Oakland; secretary, Charles Chenu, superintendent of State Motor Vehicle Department, Sacramento.

Prescott Cogswell, supervisor of Los Angeles county, sponsored the change in the disposition of motor vehicle license receipts. Cogswell declared that many small cities were overwhelmed by the burden of repairing state roads which pass through their limits and urged that cities should be given a share in the license receipts as well as the counties.

William J. Locke, secretary of the California League of Municipalities, seconded Cogswell's proposition, and asked that the counties be forced to repair state roads within the city limits of small cities in the event that municipalities were denied a share in the license receipts.

A committee was appointed to ask the legislative committee of the California League of Municipalities and the State County Supervisors' Association to consider the advisability of dividing motor vehicle license receipts between their cities and counties.

The following committees were appointed to make a study of the various proposals and submit recommendations at the next meeting:

Administration—Charles Chenu, superintendent of State Motor Vehicle Department; regulation and equipment, Robert Martland of Oakland; regulation of operation, D. R. Farler of Los Angeles; trucks, tractors and trailers, A. F. Lemberger of San Francisco; penalties and enforcements, Walter Pawcett of Oakland; motor carriers, O. R. Fuller of Los Angeles; gasoline and oil, George Riverfield of Bakersfield; publicity, Percy E. Towne of San Francisco.

The Sweetness of Grape-Nuts

is a natural sweetness developed from wheat and malted barley by processing and long baking. You need add no sugar.

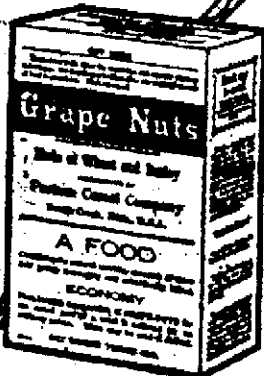

The rich flavor appeals and the food is both economical and convenient.

Try Grape-Nuts for breakfast. It builds health and strength.

There's a Reason

AT GROCERS EVERYWHERE!

Made by Postum Cereal Company, Inc. Battle Creek, Michigan.

November 23rd, 1920.

Mr. J. R. Millar,
General Manager,
California Cotton Mills.

Dear Sir:

In last evening's papers you stated: "While the retail price of cotton remains the same, the wholesale prices have fallen from 60 to 65 per cent."

On Saturday, OCTOBER 30th, 1920, we reduced the prices of practically all cotton goods to the basis of new wholesale costs: reference to the Oakland Tribune of Sunday, October 31st, will show these new prices.

At the time this was done—believing it only an ordinary incident of merchandising—we made no special announcement other than the publishing of the new prices. Consistency to our policy of not using comparative prices allowed no use of former prices. Whenever new prices have been definitely established by the manufacturers, we have adjusted our retail prices to the same basis—this policy has been followed in the past, and will be followed in the future.

In view of these facts, we cannot help but feel that your statement is not supported by the facts in so far as it relates to this establishment.

Very truly yours,

KAHN BROS.

German Nitrogen Plants For U. S.

BERLIN, Nov. 22.—Preparations have been made by the German syndicate to erect nitrogen plants in the United States and Japan, and directors of the syndicate have already opened negotiations with those governments, says the Zeitung Am Mittag.

MANY KILL SELVES.
In many cases they had to fight off maddened men from slaying children, they declared. The American Hospital in Stamboul is crowded to capacity and the American Red Cross is giving all its available medical supplies.

Rains Will Help Oil Situation

Good rains will conserve to California thousands of barrels of oil, it is demonstrated by the State Railroad Commission in its annual report. This conservation will operate through increased hydro-electric power letting the fires under boilers of many steam generating plants burn low or go out. It is estimated by the commission that steam, electric generating plants will have burned 6,000,000 barrels of oil in California in 1920, or 1,000,000 more than normal.

Better Train Service Promised District

Better service for the Dutton avenue district becoming effective today is announced by the local offices of the Southern Pacific company. The following schedule will be observed daily except Saturdays and Sundays: Trains connecting with the 5 p. m. boat from San Francisco will go through as at present; the Flyer, connecting with the 5:30 p. m. and the regular train connecting with the 5:40 p. m. boats from San Francisco will run through to Dutton avenue.

PIONEERS PLAN TO PRESERVE RELICS

Relics of the early days in California will be preserved by the California Pioneers according to a plan adopted yesterday at a meeting at the Palace Hotel in San Francisco. Valuable data and souvenirs of the first settlers were destroyed at the time of the fire. The rebuilding of the historical collection will be immediately undertaken. The society does not aim to become the possessor of the new collection, but rather its custodian. The members agreed to the plan inasmuch as the Society of California Pioneers is the only organization which can devote its entire attention to obtain the object.

John S. Drum, president, outlined the proposed work. Charles E. Turill offered the valuable collections which he has made for many years on the condition that they would be perpetuated and not sold to outsiders. George T. Mayne, former ambassador to Russia, urged that the recording of the history of the real pioneer, the men and women who made the commonwealth of California possible rather than those who have risen to prominence in council halls, be the primary object in the new undertaking. Descriptions of the early days, pictures, statistics, data of all kinds will be gathered by the society to become a part of the exhibit in their headquarters.

St. Leo's Church to Hold Whist Party

In celebration of the opening of the new parish hall of St. Leo's church, members will hold a turkey whist party Thursday evening, December 2, at St. Leo's Guild hall, Ridgeway and Piedmont avenue. Members of the arrangement committee handling the affair are: Misses Daisy Keller, Kassie Kelly, Amy Thornton, George Quinn, Lorraine Donnelly, Teresa Piptione, Helen Walsh, Mrs. John Quinn, Mrs. William Finn, Mrs. M. E. Waters, Mrs. M. G. Dwyer, Mrs. H. C. Brown, Alex Waters, Frank Cahill, William Finn, Frank Biggs, John R. Kelly, Tom Cuff, Bill Hagerty, Tom Joyce, Mat Bronner, T. F. Hardy. The score girls are: Misses Anna May, Felice Nicholas, Martha Keller, Elizabeth Quinn, Louise McGovern, Grace Collins, Marian Moffitt, Pauline May, Bell Feliciano, Ellen Thornton, Mary Davis, Hazel May, Aida Beauchamp, Louise Graner, Katherine Politeo, Adele St. Pierre, Margaret Joyce, Frances St. Pierre, Annette Cronin, Gertrude Trimmer, Margaret Quinn and Mary Morse.

Veterans Organize; Elect Officers

Permanent organization of the veterans of Battery B, 144th Field Artillery was effected this week at the first annual banquet attended by "Gruzzles" from all parts of the state in this city. The following officers were elected: Captain T. T. Gregory, first vice-president; Al Sandell, second vice-president; R. Griswold of Los Angeles, third vice-president; Chas. J. Baker of San Diego, fourth vice-president; C. Pringle, secretary; M. Logue, treasurer. Among the speakers at the banquet were Colonel Thornwell Nullally, Major Peter E. Kyne, Major Jefferson J. Graves, Captain Richard Tatham, Lieutenant C. W. Crabtree. Captain Wakefield Baker acted as toastmaster.

Elks' Drill Team To Hold Dance Tonight

The Ivory ballroom of Hotel Oakland awaits the advent of the several hundred guests at the annual ball of the drill team of the Oakland Lodge of Elks tonight. Large delegations from neighboring lodges will join the brilliant company which will participate in the revival of a pre-war custom which gave one of the most elaborate functions of the holiday season. A concert by the Big Brotherhood Boys' band of the local lodge and dance numbers by Mrs. Peter Wright's dancing girls will be introduced as special features this evening. The members of the drill team who are included on the hall committee are: Colonel J. K. Ritter, Pierce A. Fontaine, A. J. La Coste, J. B. Ritter, A. J. Peters, and W. C. Moran.

YOU CAN'T WORK WELL WITH A COLD

Get back on your job by using Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. NOBODY likes to be around a person suffering from a heavy cold. It exposes them needlessly. You can take care of your job and keep business and social engagements shortly after you begin using Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. For it is prompt in helping Nature expel phlegm, allay inflammation, ease breathing, and drive away irritating coughs. Use it—give it to the kiddies. Don't suffer a minute longer than you have to. The ingredients used in Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey are highly beneficial in promoting the relief cold-sufferers seek. Safe and economical. At all druggists. 30c, 60c, $1.20. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey for Coughs and Colds Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment

'SOCIAL' CLUBS TO CONTEST RAIDS

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 23.—A determined fight between owners of so-called gambling clubs and the police department is pressed today in a statement issued by Jimmy Ryan, who conducts a club at Mission and Third street, following a police raid on Ryan's place last night. Ryan said the raid was conducted by a posse acting under his orders and that he informed all of his subordinates that every so-called incorporated and incorporated gambling club in this district is to be closed immediately and permanently.

Haiti Prisoner Goes On Hunger Strike

HAVANA, Nov. 23.—Horacio Blanco Fombona, held a prisoner by the American military authorities in Santo Domingo, has started a hunger strike, according to word received here. Fombona is a newspaperman and has gained considerable fame as a poet.

POULTRY SHOW JUDGES CHOSEN

Five judges have been selected who will pick the winning birds in the sixteenth annual show of the Alameda County Poultry Association which opens tomorrow in the Oakland Municipal Auditorium. The judges were appointed by John J. Smith, general manager of the show, after a careful study of twelve men who are said to be the best authority on poultry in this country. The judges are C. C. Huds, W. G. Russell of Oakland, Harry Collier, Tacoma, Wash.; E. E. Emerson, Los Angeles, and Clyde Williams, Fullerton, Cal.

The work of judging the birds will start at 8 a. m. Smith expects to have the work completed by noon of the second day of the show. As soon as the winning birds have been selected by the judges the prizes will be awarded. They will be placed on display in front of the winning birds. On the opening day of the show more than 700 children attending the Oakland public schools will attend the show in a body, accompanied by their teachers. The manager of the show has arranged to have the children taken through the show in groups, accompanied by guides, who will explain the exhibits. Recognizing the educational advantage offered at the show, special arrangements have been made whereby tomorrow afternoon students in grammar and high schools arriving in groups will be admitted at special reduced rates.

A Wonderful Phonograph Sale at Chesebrough's 1448 San Pablo Ave.

We are going to sell just 300 Pathe Phonographs in Oakland before Santa Claus gets busy Christmas Eve. You pay down just one dollar tomorrow. Your Pathe Phonograph is delivered tomorrow. You pay for unquestionably the finest Phonograph made in the world at the lowest established prices quoted in Oakland, New York, Chicago, Boston, Philadelphia or any other place in the United States. You receive $25.00 worth of Pathe records which are acknowledged to be the finest and most perfect records made, and you get them free with the purchase of any Pathe except the small table model. You are not asked to take old, used, out-of-date records that nobody wants. What you get is your own choice of the very newest, latest hits and the records are delivered with your machine the same day. Ask to hear "Whispering Fox Trot" or song—"Down the Trail to Home, Sweet Home Song"—"Avon" Fox Trot—"Toodle" One-Step—"Abadelle" Fox Trot—"Let the Rest of the World Go By," song—"Old Pal"—"Flower of Italy," Accordion—"Twelfth Street Rag" Fox Trot and all the other late hits.

Why We Make This Unusual Offer

We make this offer at this time for no other reason than to introduce more comprehensively than ever before the marvelous Pathe Phonograph and Records. We want you to know the Pathe Phonograph. We want you to know the Pathe record. You will like the Pathe Phonograph. You will like the Pathe record and immediately recognize its supremacy over any other make when once you hear it played. With the Pathe Phonograph, you do not have to worry with needles. Needles scratch and wear out your record, to say nothing of the inconvenience in having to change them every time you change a record. The Pathe plays with a Sapphire Ball. This Sapphire Ball is round and smooth, is ground under a microscope to exactly fit the grooves in the records and is indestructible. You can play a thousand records with a single Sapphire Ball without injury to the records or to the Sapphire Ball itself. And the tone! You have never heard such marvelous, life-like tone reproduction in a phonograph, unless you have listened to the genuine Pathe. The Pathe will play all makes of phonograph records.

Yet the Pathe Costs No More Than the Ordinary Phonograph

Richmond Union Suits and your outward appearance

The importance of Richmond Union Suits is not lessened by the fact that they are unseen. Their perfection of fit and design has an important bearing in the set of your top-clothes and the ease and freedom of your movements. Soft fine-textured fabrics and careful, skilled workmanship insure the absolute comfort that is essential to a truly well groomed appearance. There can be no variation in Richmond Union Suits of the same size. The facing of each garment (which is made of non-stretching fabric) is cut to exact size and sewn on with three lock-stitched seams. This is only one of eight exclusive Richmond features. Ask the salesman to show you the other seven.

MY HEART and MY HUSBAND

By Adele Garrison

Jack stood as motionless as if he had been carved from stone until the physician had finished speaking, and he ignored completely Dr. Braithwaite's outstretched hand. The experienced professional man was so used to humoring invalids and adapting himself to them that he dropped with such adroitness the hand he had held out that no one but a very close observer would have noticed Jack had refused the advance.

"I understand you're going west," Dr. Braithwaite went on with the evident desire of tapering off the conversation. "The change ought to do you a great deal of good."

IN JOY ANGEL
He turned away carelessly as he spoke. I wondered if he saw Jack's fingers clenched into his palms and realized as I did how my brother-cousin was battling with the insane desire to drive one of those clenched fists into the elder man's face. In my childhood and early girlhood I had two or three times witnessed an explosion of the temper Jack usually kept under iron control. It was an exhibition I had no desire to witness again. As my thoughts flashed back for an instant to those long ago years I remembered another thing, that these infrequent rages of Jack's were usually about imaginary grievances, such as obsessed him today, and that he would heroically repress his temper many times when there was real reason for an explosion of it.

"Katherine!" Jack's tone was so low that I standing nearest him could scarcely hear it. It was almost a whisper, yet so truly angry that I shivered with apprehension. But his wife heard the first intimation, disengaged herself from Harriet Braithwaite's embrace, and came toward him, to all outward appearance as calm as if she were just taking up her position by the bedside of a patient. I wondered whimsically if her marriage to this moody cousin of mine, with wounds and illness, had not developed into a nurse-and-patient relationship, only made a thousand times more difficult because of the binding marriage tie.

"Yes, dear. What is it?" Her voice held the same low, rich, beautifully modulated intonation that had attracted me long ago to Katherine. I wondered angrily how Jack could withstand its sweetness, and I could have beaten him, in as he undeniably was, for the cold wrath in his eyes as he looked at her. "If you have quite finished your reminiscences," the words came slowly, softly, and I knew that he was repressing the desire to blaze forth all manner of angry insulting words, "perhaps you will explain to our friends that we have only stopped over between trains, and in order to get the next one back we can only stay a few minutes."

She started violently, and I saw a swift little tremor of humiliation and dismay pass over her face. I knew that they had planned to stay for several days, knew that this sudden decision of Jack's, born of his temper and jealousy, was as much a blow to her as if he had actually struck her.

But she rallied her self-possession, opened her lips in what I have no doubt was acquiescence, cleverly worded to shield her husband as much as possible, when there came an interruption as unexpected as it was welcome.

With the subtle grace that makes her always the very picture of the traditional grande dame, Harriet Braithwaite came up to Jack, interposing herself so skillfully between Katherine and himself that he had no chance to do anything save give her his undivided attention. "In that case," she said smoothly, "I must hasten to say to you something that cannot be delayed. Will you please come with me?" She laid her fingers upon his arm, took him down the steps and into the garden path before he knew fairly what he was doing.

Immense Irrigation Scheme Projected

SUSANVILLE, Nov. 23.—After fifty years of effort and the failure and wreckage of more than a dozen projects, plans for the irrigation of large tracts of land in Honey Lake Valley from the waters of Eagle Lake now are well on the way to consummation. What is known as the Ely project has been approved by the State Water commission, and it is stated that contracts with a large number of landowners and with financial interests makes the completion of the system within a year or two virtually certain. The diversion of water will amount to 60,000 acre feet annually, and the tracts to be reclaimed and irrigated will total 25,000 acres.

MRS. WM. MARTIN ONLY WEIGHED 92 POUNDS

Takes Tanlac and Gains Twenty-one Pounds; Husband Says It's Greatest Medicine On Earth.

"I think it's about time for me to tell Tanlac, for the medicine has not only restored my wife's health but has also built her up from ninety-two to a hundred and thirteen pounds in weight," was the enthusiastic statement made recently by William Martin of 2145 S. Broadway, Los Angeles, Cal., well known proprietor of the "White Lunch" restaurant.

"My wife was in the hospital for quite a while last summer, following a very severe operation that left her in a terribly rundown condition. Her appetite was so poor that she had no desire to eat, and she suffered a great deal from constipation. She seemed to be listless and had no energy, and could scarcely get about the house. She was very nervous also, and wasn't able to regain any of her strength. Nothing she took seemed to do her a particle of good, and we were very much worried over her condition.

"Her mother got her to try Tanlac, and it's certainly astonishing how the medicine has set her right. Why it has given her such an appetite, she eats three good hearty meals every day, and has so regained her strength that she helps me as cashier down at the restaurant now. She has actually gained twenty-one pounds in weight, and we both think Tanlac is the greatest medicine ever made."

Tanlac is sold in San Francisco, Oakland and Berkeley by the Owl Drug Company stores and Ebbert's Quality Pharmacy, Alameda.—Advertisement.

TRIBUNE LEAGUERS WILL PROVIDE ENTERTAINMENT THURSDAY

DEFEAT OF THE BLACK BROTHERS BY THE ESPINOSA BOYS STILL TALK IN GOLF CIRCLES

TRACTORS VS. MILLERS AT SAN LEANDRO LOT IS FEATURE OF DAY

Former Members of the Cherry Town Team Will Cavort With California Cotton Mills

Baseball fans of the Eastbay will be treated to several good looking games Thanksgiving Day. Although no games of the OAKLAND TRIBUNE Midwinter League are scheduled, the managers of the California Cotton Mills and the Best Tractors teams of the Class-A and almost every manager of the Class-B division have decided to play off one of their postponed games. The one game in the Class-A will be played at the San Leandro diamond. Managers of clubs in the "A" league were in favor of their teams playing games in order to catch up with the schedule, but the Coast Tire, Halton-Didder, Alameda Bethlehem and Crystal Laundry managers find it impossible to have all their players on the job that day.

To be sure of having all their men on the job Thursday, it was necessary for Wagner of the Tractors and Frank Cotton of the Mills to schedule their game for 1:30 sharp. All the boys want to be at home early so they can shove their feet under the table with the rest of the family and be sure their share of the turkey and the stuffing is theirs. The game between the Mills and Tractors will make up for the one postponed two weeks ago because of rain. The Mills will be fighting to save themselves from having to keep the Tractors company in the Class-A. The Mills have a lot of other company for the two clubs as the Alameda Bethlehem would have the same standing as them.

Cherry Town Favorites Will Play With Rivals

The contest promises to be a good one and should send the fans home with something to talk about at the table besides the high cost of turkey and who will break the wishbone. No doubt the San Leandro fans will have a lot of fun kidding Rod Allen, first sacker, and Artie Schimpf, shortstop of the Mills. Both these boys started with the Tractors last winter, and the San Leandro bugs have a lot of fun kidding their old favorites.

Positions of clubs in the class A have not seemed to cut any figure with the fans these days, for at present all clubs look equally strong and there is no reason to expect a good game no matter what teams clash. Manager Cotton announced that he will use "Duke" Ross and Al. Droebe as his battery against the Tractors, while Wagner has decided to use Gene Caldera on the hill and Gene Caldera on the mound. Droebe and Phil Apperson will play for the Mills, and Pete Starasich will be the pitcher for the Tractors. Starasich was captain of the Holister club which won the Mission League last year, and he is a pretty good pitcher. The game will start at 1:30 sharp at the San Leandro park.

All Class B Clubs Expected To Play

Unless it is learned by some "B" manager today that it will be impossible for him to make his full team out next Thursday, the full set of five games which were postponed from last Thursday will be played on that day. President Fred Krumboltz of the Arbitration Board of the TRIBUNE League decided that no games in the Class B league should start later than noon on Thanksgiving Day, so fans hoping to see the "B" boys in action will have to make a dash for the Oakland Hills Athletic League park Thursday morning at 10:30. The Mills and Alameda are in the Class B league and they are expected to play a game Thursday would be that the candy to get one of the clubs in the win column. The Mills are playing the Mills and the Mills are playing the Mills.

The Peet Bros. and Espinosas are anxious to get together and play their postponed game and arrange to meet at the Coast League park at 11:30, also. Manager "Red" Kelly of the Mills is expected to show up around to get promise that his men would be on the job for Thursday. Kelly is expected to show up around to get promise that his men would be on the job for Thursday.

McLure Team Will Meet Central Oaks

The McLure fans are in for a real treat when the Central Oakland Merchants will cross bats with the McLure Merchants at the McLure diamond starting at the noon hour. The McLure fans have been playing well and they are expected to show up around to get promise that his men would be on the job for Thursday. Kelly is expected to show up around to get promise that his men would be on the job for Thursday.

Golden Gaters To Shoot for Their Dinners

The Golden Gate Gun Club will hold a turkey shoot Thanksgiving afternoon at the north end of Stanton street, in Alameda. The program will consist of twenty-five target events. One turkey order will be awarded to each squad of five members. In order that everybody may have an opportunity to secure a bird, the various squads will draw for the turkey after the shooting. The latter method, it is hoped, will enable new shooters to participate, feeling that they will have a better chance with the more experienced shooters. All shooters are invited, whether members of the club or not and any five men will be permitted to form their own squad, in order that they may select their friends to shoot with. This will be a novel affair, and should prove both successful and enjoyable. In the event of rain, the shoot will be postponed until a later date.

Plays Against His Old Pals Thursday

Before going to the Mission League last summer, Rod Allen was with the C. L. Best Tractors of San Leandro and he was a big favorite with the fans of the cherry town because of his timely hitting and good fielding. Next Thursday the Best Tractors are to meet the California Cotton Mills nine at a TRIBUNE league game at San Leandro, and Allen will be seen doing his best to beat the Tractors. He will cover the first sack for the Mills, Allen had a trial with the Oaks a couple of years ago and hopes to earn another with some professional club through his work this winter.

The first monthly tournament for the trophy donated by Miss Alice Knowles resulted in a victory for Mrs. K. H. Gills, who defeated Mrs. C. H. Ford, 2-1, in the final over 16 holes. The finals will be over 16 holes next Sunday, when Mrs. Gills (6) and D. H. Woods (6) decide who is to be the fortunate possessor of this handsome trophy.

A local golf and sporting goods concern proposes holding an invitational tournament in the near future for professional golfers. A handsome trophy will go to the winner of the event. The only stipulation that is attached to players entering for this event is that they play with the new standard ball throughout the entire tournament. This ball, which is made of rubber and is of a size and weight of a golf ball, conforms in every respect to the new regulations as laid down by the U. S. A. and is expected to be a great success. The tournament will be held at the Oakland Hills Athletic League park.

SANTA CLARA VS. NEVADA IS TURKEY DAY FEATURE

Missionites and Sage Hens Will Clash On Gridiron At Ewing Field Thursday

SANTA CLARA UNIVERSITY, Nev., is engaged in a fight for the forward positions. This should prove a good race as all of the boys are evenly matched in ability. For the center place, Olsen is trying to outfox McLure for the inside track. The five most promising men on the team are Olsen, McLure, and the others.

OAKLAND CLUB TO HOLD MEETING TOMORROW

J. Cal Ewing, president of the Oakland Baseball Club, has called a meeting of the directors to take place at the club headquarters tomorrow night at 8 o'clock. Just what the purpose of the meeting is, has not been made public, but it is thought that it will be for outlining plans for the 1921 season.

One Defeat in 20 Years Team's Record

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 23.—The end of the 1920 football season finds one southern college with a record of only one defeat in twenty years. Morehouse College, a negro institution, lost a game ten years ago but for ten years prior to that time and since then, the word "defeat" has been known at the school only as it applied to Morehouse's opponent.

Eight Clubs May Be in '21 Mission Race

While the gridiron for our sister states will soon be the field next Thursday with an enthralling reputation, Bob Harmon's men should give them a close tussle, and although the Nevada are slight favorites on paper, the Missionites are specialists at upsetting the done. Every afternoon Harmon puts his charges through a tough workout, starting with light practice and ending with a scrimmage between the regulars and the Hoopleys. All practice is secret, no outsiders being allowed on the field.

Graduate Manager James R. O'Connor expects to see a banner crowd on Thanksgiving Day, and it is thought that the attendance will be greater than that of the Stanford-Santa Clara game.

Hayward District Has Own Football League

HAYWARD, Nov. 23.—Football has struck this valley with a bang. Hayward is not the only pebble on the beach in football, for Mayor Vose of San Lorenzo, and Mayor or Lavin, of Junction City, have met together and established a league composed of the following teams that will play Saturday, Castro Valley, with "Jeb" Preston, captain; Junction City, with "Tom" Rose, captain; San Lorenzo, Teubert Smith, captain; Russell City, Snookers, captain; Mt. Eden, Alvin Schaffer, captain; "Overland" with "Burr" captain. The two Mayors have donated a trophy that is to be given the winner.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 23.—Efforts are being made to have the University of Southern California admitted to the Pacific Coast Conference at the annual meeting of that body December 29. It was announced here today by Henry Bruce, graduate manager.

OLYMPIC CLUB ELEVEN AND PACIFIC FLEET BATTLE AT BERKELEY

Sailors Have Wonderful Aggregation; Rosenthal May Don An Olympic Suit.

By DOUG MONTELL

Now that the smoke of battle from the big game has cleared away and the two rival squads have broken training, all that we hear is a faint echo or two of the struggle. Stanford is through for the year, California is through until after "finals." Both squads broke training with a bang Saturday night and there are no signs of football today at California. Nothing definite has been decided regarding the Pasadena game for New Year's Day, although members of the Tournament of Roses committee, who attended the Stanford-California game, expressed themselves in favor of inviting California to represent the west.

Graduate Manager Lute Nichols said yesterday that everything seemed to point to California being the selection, but that no invitation will be sent out until after the Thanksgiving Day games are played. On that day Oregon meets U. S. C. at Pasadena, while two games are on tap in the bay region. Santa Clara clashes with Nevada in San Francisco, while California Field will be the scene of a hot old battle when the Olympic Club hooks up with the eleven representing the Pacific fleet.

All dogs indicate that the above-mentioned meeting will be a considerable football contest. The name Pacific fleet reminds one off-hand of the various and sundry sailor eleven's we know of from about the bay region, after having taken a look at the men of the team and at the way they play through a three-hour workout on California Field yesterday afternoon.

They are considerable aggregation of footballers. Five former Annapolis stars are present in the line-up and three All-American men are named among the first string eleven. Add to this one former Colgate star and a few enlisted men who are played in shape all season in his work with the California team, there is much chance of it's being so. His aggregation of the Pacific fleet team in all probability the first team will be announced after practice tonight.

ROSALIE MAY PLAY Rosalie May, Rosenthal, former Minnesota star and All-American center, would be seen in a club suit today in shape all season in his work with the California team, there is much chance of it's being so. His aggregation of the Pacific fleet team in all probability the first team will be announced after practice tonight.

SAILORS HOLD PRACTICE The Pacific Fleet team is being coached by J. H. Ingram, former coach of Annapolis in 1919, and he put his entire squad of twenty-five through as hard a workout as any college eleven has undergone in preparing for a big game.

Berkeley still resembled a lake in yesterday and the players slipped and skidded about in practice, but the stuff they showed was enough to warrant rating them the equal of the best eleven in the country. A battle is looked for by the majority of the members of the California Varsity.

Bill Ingram, captain of 1918 Annapolis team and an All-American quarterback, is the shining light of the fleet. Ingram is a tackle and seventy yards with a high spiral that enabled his ends to get down to nail the receiver. Ingram punting is the best seen here this year. Roberts, another member of the 1918 Annapolis eleven, and an All-American halfback, is the star of the fleet, being one of the best seen in action, a hard man to tackle and possessing a mean boot himself. Benoit, fullback at Annapolis last year under Gil Doyle, is holding down the fullback berth on the team with Fielding, an enlisted man of excellent ability, at left half. It is a backfield that bests anything seen here and should give the Club team a bad time.

NO STARS IN LINE The line is good but no made up of such star material. Arthur at center is an All-American from the Annapolis eleven, and is a tackle. Helmsberg, at end, is an Annapolis man, having been captain of the 1917 Varsity. Helmsberg is a tackle and a former Colgate star, while the remainder of the line is made up of enlisted men. P. G. & E. Employees Have Basket League

The Pacific Gas & Electric Co. has organized a basketball league among the following districts: San Francisco, San Jose, Oakland and Sacramento. Last Saturday the Oakland team won the first game, 15-10, at the Oakland Athletic Club. The game was played at the Sacramento team, winning by a score of 43 to 16. The following players took part: Oakland: C. M. Cowell and H. L. Gregor, forwards; J. B. Cowell, center, and B. E. Dyer, guards. Sacramento: C. M. Cowell at center was the star of the game.

EARLY TAX REVISION—UNLIKELY.

There is not much hope to be gained from the statements of majority leaders in Congress that a revision of the tax-schedules will be attempted at the short regular session of Congress to open on December 6. The consensus of opinion is that the Democratic opposition would be stoutly against any program of radical revision of the existing tax law, and that if the Republicans did succeed in putting through their proposed changes, which it is granted might be possible if they could overcome the tactics of obstruction before the end of the session, President Wilson probably would veto the act and thus nullify all their work.

President-elect Harding has announced his intention to summon the Congress to special session shortly after his inauguration. In the opinion of Republican leaders who are now consulting on their plans for the coming December session, it would be far more agreeable, and really promise quicker results, if the revision of the tax schedule was postponed until the special session. They believe that simplification of the various forms of tax returns, which are greatly harassing and inconveniencing business, might be effected and possibly the elimination of the excess profits tax might be ordered, but even this much, they doubt, could hardly be effected early enough to bring any relief to the tax burden of the calendar year of 1920, or before the tax returns for this year are required to be submitted.

Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania, chairman of the Senate finance committee, is of the opinion that business and industry is not justified in expecting much in the way of tax revision at the coming session of Congress. He does not believe that Congress would favor the repeal of any taxation schedules until the Republicans enter into full control of the government. He fears that anything that might be attempted would be opposed by President Wilson, and thinks it would be a waste of time to attempt to carry Republican party policies into effect during the closing weeks of the Wilson administration.

In this view Senator Penrose is apparently right, but right or wrong, the majority of Congress probably will agree with him. Inasmuch as President-elect Harding has it on his program to call a special session of the new Congress the country will be just as well off to wait on the new Congress for tax revision. The federal taxes payable next year, returns of which must be filed in March, are levied on the business of the calendar year of 1920 and business generally has prepared to meet the existing schedule.

The relief to business which a new tax law would bring, however, in the way of knowledge as to what to expect during the year of 1921 would be large and highly beneficial. And it is the duty of Congress to let business know as early as possible what its 1921 tax problems will be. Congress should waste as little time as possible in effecting the necessary revision, and if any progress is possible during the coming short session it should be attempted.

ANOTHER WAR THREATENED.

News despatches from Europe are to the effect that the Soviet peace commissioners have interrupted their conferences with the Polish commissioners and that a new Bolshevik war against Poland has been started. Bolshevik operations in the Ukraine and in cooperation with the Lithuanians afford presumptive confirmation of this unpleasant news.

The Allied powers will no doubt be greatly disturbed by the changed situation and will have an opportunity once again to view the penalty of their inaction. When General Wrangel had cleared the Crimea and Southern Russia of the Bolsheviks the Allied governments recognized him as heading a de facto government and extended him their good wishes. But when he was hard-pressed by an overwhelming Bolshevik military force and had appealed to the Allies for help, they abandoned him and all that he had gained. Wrangel has been driven out of the Crimea and his power of resistance against the Bolsheviks utterly destroyed.

Now that Wrangel is disposed of the Bolshevik leaders have turned their attention to Poland and a new war is on. The preliminary treaty of peace which the emissaries of Lenin and Trotsky signed at Riga is another scrap of paper. The attack upon Poland, and through Poland upon all Western Europe, has been renewed.

With France continuing her aid to Poland the danger of Bolshevik success is slight, but the insane waste and the terrible suffering which the Russian people will have to endure because of the trickery of the Bolshevik leaders cannot now be avoided. Control of the Bolshevik military forces, through helping General Wrangel to hold South Russia, would have been a deed of great mercy. Also it would have relieved the Allied powers of much anxiety and made the prospects of general European peace brighter.

But the Allies faltered and blundered. Their errors will cost them heavily.

GOLD MINING NEEDS AID.

In a paper read before the American Mining Congress in Denver a few days ago, Dr. Milnor Roberts, dean of the College of Mines of the University of Washington, stated that high war-time wages had crippled the gold mining industry of Alaska by attracting the miners from the north. In 1915 Alaska produced $16,702,732, reaching the peak of ten years of steady growth. In 1919 the output fell to $9,000,000, with the indications that the production this year will be below that figure.

There are several causes for the present situation, the paper continued. The first was the war. At its outbreak in 1914 many British miners in Alaska and in the adjacent Yukon territory of Canada hastened to their country's aid. America's entry into the war caused most of our young men to enlist, but still there remained a good proportion of the older and more experienced miners.

When the demand for men to carry on the war industries in the States became pressing another outpouring took place. Hearing from the "outside" of the ever-increasing wages, the miners, being accustomed to adapt themselves to various kinds of work, were quick to take advantage of the opportunities.

Thus the war drew upon the man-power of Alaska both directly and indirectly. And the wages which drew them have held the men away from the north. Alaskan gold producers are unable to pay the scales of wages prevailing along the Pacific Coast in the United States and make both ends meet, regardless of the profits.

What Dr. Roberts said concerning the gold industry of Alaska might have been said, with a slight change in the figures, regarding the gold mining industry of California and the other gold-producing States. Wages in the industrial centers drew the workers of all gold mines away from their employment and made it necessary for the mine operators to pay the increased wages and other operating costs or to close down their mines. All too many mines were closed as a result and unless the gold mining industry receives more support from the government than it has received in the past they will stay closed indefinitely.

A report just compiled and made public by the Oakland Chamber of Commerce emphasizes the advantages of the Eastbay district as a manufacturing and industrial center. In Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda alone there are 60,000 workers, according to the estimate. Of this large labor supply, 35,000 are metal and shipyard workers, 16,500 iron workers and machinists, 6700 wood workers, 6000 shipyard laborers and 3450 electrical workers. With an abundance of machine shops and foundries, with ample electric power available, with the several transcontinental railway terminals at tidewater, this labor reservoir, and the population of over 1,000,000 in the bay district, the Eastbay section has become one of the most important industrial centers in the United States.

Marshal Foch evidently believes that the future will ask some questions about the inner motives of some of the treaty provisions regarding military safeguards for France, and as always regarding his past, he wants to stand perfectly clear as to the future. But both Foch and Clemenceau served their country and the world well and their dispute is not apt to rob either of much of their country's gratitude.

The New York Herald observes that John Burroughs challenged Henry Ford to climb a tree, and Henry, who had left his car at home, was unequal to the occasion. But then Mr. Ford had a lot of experience with the squirrel peace agency to Stockholm.

To some persons it may sound strange that they are proposing to build refrigerating plants in Alaska to handle reindeer meat. The widespread conception is that there is an abundance of ice in Alaska.

Nowadays when government officials urge the people to economy and the conservation of their resources there are many persons who feel like reminding the government that they are squandering their own money.

The fact that the booze scandal and the shipping board scandal were not brought under the full light of publicity until after the election did not hurt Governor Cox's candidacy at all.

NOTES and COMMENT

After weeks of warlike accounts of the doings of the greater baseball magnates, in which expressions like "fight to the death" occurred, we are advised that they are to get together and "settle their scraps." It is not impossible that enthusiasm for the game has been somewhat chilled meanwhile, which in some measure would have been avoided if the magnates had got together before they began the scrap.

Miss Hodge, a teacher in the Chicago schools, unconsciously kept the wires busy recently telling the people that she not only approves having her boys settle their differences with boxing gloves, but stands by as referee to see that fair play and the square deal are maintained. This will be quite shocking to many, particularly as another Chicago teacher immediately put in a demand for boxing gloves. How do we know that it won't go like wild fire and all our boys demand boxing gloves in school?—Stockton Record.

Greece has been warned against the return of Constantine. Greece is always appealing, either direct or postulated, for help against her hereditary enemies, and it is now intimated that if she does not harken to advice, she will be permitted to fight her own battles. There is not a solidarity in Greece to withstand the onslaught that may be made if the chances of success from the outside is gone.

The movement to conserve and protect native flowers, shrubs and plants is a result of rural devastation chargeable to the automobile. Farther reaches of the country are easily attained by the modern vehicle, and there seems to be less regard for native growths, and even cultivated areas, than was the case when means of transportation were more limited. The red berries are in point, but all growths that attract attention suffer.

The Sacramento Bee does a stunt in arithmetic: "If The Wandering Jew," said by Eugene Sue and old tradition to have been condemned to walk the earth eternally, had started spending $2,500,000,000 in 1 A. D. at the rate of $1,000,000 a year, he still would have more than half a billion of the principal, even were the latter not out at interest."

The news despatch was the "Belgian birth rate is declared insufficient." The practical Belgians do not let it go at that. Three things are suggested to fetch up the statistics, principal of which is the increase of maternity hospitals and lessening the expense, which has been growing in all countries, as we have seen.

The Sacramento Union butts in: "Having ended their inspection of the Hunters Point and Alameda sites for the proposed Pacific naval base, the members of the Congressional investigating committee will visit Mare Island today, and if the issue is to be decided on its merits they will see the future location of the base."

The national administration is still pursuing its watchful waiting policy as to Mexico, though it varies its action of recognizing the wrong "liberator" by not recognizing any. And there is a distinct feeling that this is the psychological time to do something to help that country to its feet.

How thieves outlast detectives is illustrated in the San Francisco incident when a burglar looted the residence of a slough while he was out sleuthing. It can at least be said that the burglar stood in no awe of the man whose mission it is to run him down.

SPIRIT OF THE STATE PRESS

Of the many species of predatory opportunists the ticket scalper is one of the most reprehensible. He gets in with his inglorious proposition only because of the transcendent desire which the customer has for the ticket offered—a desire which is so strong that one is willing to submit to extortion. Theater patrons for years have been victimized by the ticket scalper's graft and the drive which the Orpheum theaters have been conducting to put an end to the scalping business deserves the strongest commendation.—Palo Alto Times.

Marooned on a small island for twenty-four hours, while a terrible rain whipped their clothes to the saturation point, and the rising waters gradually lessened their acreage of safety, was the experience of seven fishermen employed by the Guggenheim company on a dredger near Browns valley.

The men were stranded on the island last Thursday evening after their boat had been torn from its landing. All day long efforts were made to rescue the undermen but without avail. It was not until a boat had been brought with great difficulty from Marsville that the men were brought to shore.—Oroville Register.

Chairman Shaughnessy of the Nevada public service commission rules out the claim of the Southern Pacific that every dollar taken in on the dining cars costs $1.11. It is no picnic serving juicy steaks, chops, roasts and other delicacies in the deserts of the Sagebrush State, and the municipal chairman will probably find that Chief Steward Pollok can prove his assertion.—Chicago Enterprise.

High rents have caused two Southern California pastors to be said to move their families into the churches at which they officiate. Not such a bad idea. Nearly every church is equipped with a kitchen and parlors that are used only on special occasions. It would be one way of getting full value for the money put into them.—Stockton Record.

ANXIOUS MOMENTS

THE DOCTOR'S BOY; A Marion Progression

The doctor drove out in the dawn's faint light
Triumphant again in an age-old fight,
And he slapped the reins on the back of his nag
And clutched with care the little black bag,
And he told on his rounds the news of joy,
'Arrived at my house—a doctor's boy.'

The old rig splashed along in the rain
Down the winding road and the wagon came,
And the doctor was leaning back in style,
His eye on the driver all the while.
But the youthful driver was puffed with joy,
The doctor's coachman? The doctor's boy.

The doctor sprang out at the head of his mare
As he heard down the street a band's oom-flare,
With the bass-drum roll and the small boy shout
As the rod of the trombone slid in and out,
And the doctor hailed, 'You trombone, ahoy!
The trombone player? The doctor's boy.'

The doctor's rig poked along the street,
And the doctor was reading a fresh-printed sheet.
'Giddap!' cried the doctor at length to his mare
'Some editorials, I declare,
And bound the anti-Blaine guys to annoy'
The editor? The doctor's boy.

Then the people of good old Ohio State
Said, 'We want this man, as sure as fate
To stand for us in Washington.'
No sooner said than it was done
The father's pride was without alloy
For the Senator was the doctor's boy.

Under the folds of a fluttering flag
The doctor was harnessing up his nag
Ready to start on his usual trip,
When a messenger brought him a printed slip
He wiped from his nose a mist of joy,
'They've nominated the doctor's boy.'

Election day has come and gone,
A tide that swept to victory on,
A riot of noise rolled up and down
The cheering streets of Marion-town
An old man heard with heart-felt joy
In 'Our President,' the doctor's boy.

THE DINING-ROOM

In a great many homes the dining-room is looked upon purely as a room where the family eats its meals. Three times a day its members gather together and partake of their allotted rations.

It would be a carpenter fellow who would deny that such is the chief purpose of the dining-room, but there are still a few charming people left who look upon meals as a time for mental as well as physical nourishment.

There the youngest ventures timidly on his first essay in the realm of talk. There the senile learns to express herself in other ways than giggles and demure monosyllables. There the father, stuffed with wisdom, can feed the mental hunger of his brood.

A lot of people who have found pleasant companionship and social ease by reason of their conversational gifts would find, if they looked back, that the teaching process took place in the dining-room at home.—London Express.

SLACKER MAJORITIES

Nine hundred and ninety-nine times out of a thousand the city or province or state or country gets just the sort of government it deserves, and the thousandth time it gets a better one. When you find a crooked or inefficient council or legislature in power for any length of time, no matter where you find it, you can be entirely sure that it is there because the "better citizens" are slackers, whose conception of their duty to the community is to shirk their job one day in the year and snarl about the result for the other three hundred and sixty-four. The majority in no community wants bad or inefficient or dishonest government. The majority holds in its hands the power to determine the sort of government it shall have, and yet it is very frequently governed badly or inefficiently or dishonestly because it is too slack to exert its power. Good government is secured by the ballot, and not by the bellow.—Montreal Star.

ISLAND DOMAIN DUSKY HAREM DREAM OR REAL?

Former Berkeley Man May Be Owner of Many Wives in South Sea Isles.

Robert A. McLean, one-time soldier, former Berkeley man, once characterized as the world's champion news faker, is not sure after all that he is not the possessor of an island, a royal title and two score dusky wives.

This became known today when a telegram written to the War Department by McLean inquiring about the South Sea estate was disclosed.

Just a year ago McLean, who had returned to his home in Berkeley from service with the Marine Corps in the Philippines, whispered that because of a certain deed of valor he had acquired the friendship of the Sultan of Liang-Liang; and that later, when royalty passed to the great beyond, he had been willed the estate.

ESTIMATES GREAT WEALTH
Pearl fisheries of great wealth were present, he intimated, and as the crowning feature of the story he told of the forty maidens that constituted Sultan Abdul Kasha Mid's harem.

Then McLean declared for publication that he did not want the last-mentioned part of his inheritance, and that he was going to give the harem to other rulers in the district.

Finally he said it was because he had saved the sultan's life when he was serving with the marine corps that the gift had been made him.

And then—
He said it was all a fake.

It was only a publicity story, he is said to have declared, and he believed it a "mopin'" of a yarn.

REPORT IS REVIVED
Today, however, wire reports from the east indicate that the doughty sargeant is either attempting to revive the story or that there is possibly some truth in the account of the strange inheritance.

Fifteen hundred subjects dwell in the dream land, McLean told the government, and he asked contradiction of the will by which the holdings became his.

There is one thing that he is certain about, it is apparent, and that is that sudden disposition will be made of the harem, for since he "broke" his big "yarn" McLean has taken unto himself a wife, and should the facts be substantiated she will be the one and only Mrs. Sultan Abdul Kasha Mid McLean.

Speeder Delivers Himself to Jail to Serve Sentence

Armed with his own commitment papers, Irving W. Murray, 26 years old, first engineer on the S. S.
Maitland, delivered himself to the sheriff of Alameda county from Berkeley today. Murray was arrested several weeks ago for driving an automobile while intoxicated and was sentenced to serve four days in the county jail. The clerical of Judge Robert Edgar of Berkeley suspended his sentence until the return of the Maitland from Honolulu.

"Here I am, judge," said Murray
this morning.

"Do you realize you will spend Thanksgiving in jail," demanded an astonished magistrate.

"Guess I'll have to do it, judge," responded the prisoner.

"Here take your own commitment papers to the sheriff," invited Judge Edgar, washing his hands of the matter.

'BLIND PIG,' STILL RAIDED; GRAPPA IN MAKING SEIZED

Federal Officials and Local Police Conduct Raid in East Oakland.

Swooping down on an alleged
"blind pig" conducted by Jack Firpo, 1347 Fifteenth street, federal officers and Oakland police raided the establishment after forcing entrance at the point of arms, and confiscated
a thousand gallons of new wine claret which the United States agents declared was destined to become the chief ingredient in a large quantity of grappa.

The federal agents received an anonymous "tip" that Firpo was conducting not only a "blind pig" retailing liquor, but was conducting a still for the manufacture of ardent drinks.

Firpo protested bitterly at confiscation of his "stock." He insisted it was his own private stock, which he had on hand before prohibition became effective. Experts for the government say the wine was "fresh"
and was made to be distilled into heavier liquor.

Firpo was taken to the city jail
where charges of violating the prohibition law were lodged against him.
He was admitted bail.

The confiscated wine and paraphernalia seized was taken to San Francisco. Also the federal agents took over a large quantity of "moonshine" stills seized in Oakland during the past several weeks in prohibition raids.

BERKELEY LAYS PLANS FOR BIG PASADENA GAME

BERKELEY, Nov. 23.—Special trains, boats, automobiles, and every possible means of conveyance to Pasadena on New Year's day are being arranged by students of the University of California to participate in the proposed California-Princeton game. Already parties have been completed to charter railroad cars and boats and in the event that the Berkeley team is chosen to play the western champions the California campus will migrate as a unit to Pasadena.

Graduate Manager L. A. Nichols announced at an impromptu meeting held on the college campus yesterday that if California is chosen each student will be allowed to purchase four tickets for the game and they will be sold in Berkeley. The University Glee Club has already completed arrangements to give a "football show"
in Pasadena on New Year's night and a large rooting section will accompany the team.

Berkeley Flyer Is to Have Military Burial

BERKELEY, Nov. 23.—The body of James A. Turney, 18-year-old flying cadet, who was killed yesterday in an airplane accident in San Antonio, Tex., will be brought to Berkeley for funeral services.

The funeral will be the second in the family within a week. News of the young aviator's death reached his family yesterday morning as his sisters were being said for a brother, Le Roy Turney, 4 years old, who died Sunday from a tomatoe poisoning.

Turney was the youngest of eight children. The brother who was buried yesterday was the youngest in the family. A military funeral will be conducted for the young aviator with interment in the Presidio.

Even the thoughtless boy knows better than to thaw his frost bitten fingers before a fire. He knows that a gradual thawing in ice water or melt-

And those who are frequently subjected to burns know that the pain and inflammation following a burn are markedly relieved by holding the burnt part close to the fire.

Philippines Need Capital; Porto Rico Trade Booming

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Insufficient American capital is the nation's insurmountable obstacle to the development of the Philippines, according to the report of Major General McIntyre, chief of the United States military mission to the islands, who is expected to return to the United States tomorrow.

General McIntyre says that the Philippines need a capital of $100,000,000 to develop the islands, and that the United States must supply this capital. He also says that the Philippines need a capital of $100,000,000 to develop the islands, and that the United States must supply this capital.

labor demand in other agricultural provinces having a population of 250 per square mile.

EXPLANATION FOR OIL.

Action has been taken by the Philippine legislature to provide for the exploration of lands containing petroleum and other mineral oils and gas, in which connection General McIntyre says that the existence of oil in widely separated localities in the Philippines has been known since the occupation of the islands, but there has been no serious effort at development. There is now promise that in the near future it will be definitely known whether this oil exists in such a way as to be of commercial use.

The organic act of 1914 providing for the government of the Philippines and greatly increasing the powers of the local legislature has "in no way disappointed the hopes then expressed," says the report.

Shortage of labor is proving a serious obstacle to the development of the islands, the report states, the natives preferring to move to Hawaii and other comparatively developed places rather than clear the back country. There was every evidence of contentment with conditions and of friendliness toward Americans and appreciation for what the United States has done in the islands, General McIntyre states in reporting on a recent inspection trip.

PORTO RICO PROGRESSING.

The progress of Porto Rico under the organic act of 1917 has been very satisfactory and continues so, the report says, the island having just completed one of the most prosperous years in its history. Improvement of freight and passenger service between the United States and Porto Rico was recommended. Liquidation of the $20,000,000 bond issue of 1902, and the collection

Vallejo to License Soft Drink Parlors

VALLEJO, Nov. 23.—A $50 semi-annual business license for some of the larger soft drink emporiums in this city is being contemplated by the city council. The smaller drink emporiums will have a graduated scale of license. Other business licenses will be raised next year. The city council adopts ordinances prepared by the city attorney, and which were read for the first time at the meeting on Monday.

MODERN CRANKCASE CLEANING SERVICE

"for clean oil in a clean engine"
Inside facts on a dirty job!

YOUR engine requires an internal bath frequently. Road dust, carbon from the combustion chamber, and fine particles of metal worn from the bearing surfaces get into the lubricating oil in the crankcase. All this dirt circulates with the oil through the engine. If it isn't drained out regularly there's bound to be excessive wear and tear.

Gasoline also escapes past the pistons and dilutes the oil.

Modern Crankcase Cleaning Service gets rid of the dirty, diluted oil, flushes the crankcase thoroughly and refills with clean, fresh oil.

The garages listed below are now equipped to perform this needed service quickly and for a nominal charge. We use Calol Flushing Oil, which cleanses thoroughly without danger of contaminating the fresh Zerolene refilled into the cleaned crankcase.

TODAY: Bring in your car for Modern Crankcase Cleaning Service. It will result in better engine performance and longer life for your car.

TOWN COMPLAINS OF NOISY MULES

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 23.—The Missouri nightingale, famed from border to border for generations and who lately acquired new honors in service with the A. E. F. in France, has achieved higher glories. For the name of the mule has entered the domain of the law and is duly recorded in its records in no uncertain terms.

This nightingale and his "strident cacophonies" has been legally discussed by Judge Finlayson of the California District Court of Appeal in the case of Boyd vs. City of Sierra Madre. The facts of the case appear that Boyd, the owner of several long-eared horses, has been asked to either muzzle or rid the city of them. Says Judge Finlayson: "We know of no Heaven-sent maxim to invent a silencer for this brute, that one beholding him, neck outstretched, and jaws distended wide, could persuade himself that he but heard from the depths of the beast's crimson-coated cavern."

nothing lives "Twist it and silence."

Judge Finlayson fears that until the arrival of the "whispering-burro" or until "man invents the muffle" we shall sit in the dead and such middle of the night even in such corals as appellants kept in a cleanly, wholesome and sanitary manner hear the loud discordant bray of this sociable but shrill-tongued friend of man filling the air with barbarous dissonance and drowning even that shout that beyond "Frightened the reign of chaos and old night."

PLOT TO BOMB PREMIER HARA IS DISCLOSED

TOKYO, Nov. 23.—(By The Associated Press).—An attempt to assassinate Premier Hara was disclosed by the publication of the findings of a preliminary court, which tried a former artilleryman named Ito, who was charged with planning an attempt against the Premier's person with seven bombs.

Ito was hostile to the present cabinet, it was asserted and came to Tokyo, where he bought a revolver and explosives. He was knocked down accidentally by an automobile and the police discovered the infernal machine and unraveled the plot.

Ito has been remanded to the higher court.

"I have," says I. "And I deserve it."

"And I," says Fergus, "am the best-looking man between the Arctic circle and Antarctic sea pack."

"With limitations," says I, "as to physiognomy and geography, I freely concede you to be."

"Between the two of us," says Fergus, "we ought to land the Senorita Anabela Zamora. The lady, as you know, is of an old Spanish family, and further than looking at her driving in the family carriage of afternoons around the plaza, or catching a glimpse of her through a barred window of evenings, she is as unapproachable as a star."

"And her for which one of us?" says I.

"For me, of course," says Fergus. "You've never seen her. Now, I've had Francisca point me to her as being you on several occasions. When she sees me on the plaza she thinks she's looking at Don Judson Tate, the greatest hero, statesman and romantic figure in the country. With your reputation and my looks combined in one man, how can she resist him? She's heard all about you, and she's seen me. Can any woman want more?" asks Fergus McMahon.

"Can she do with less?" I asked. "How can we separate our mutual attractions, and how shall we appropriate the proceeds?"

"Then Fergus tells me his scheme. The house of the alcalde, Don Luis Zamora, he says, has a patio, or courtyard, of inner court, yard opening from the street. In an angle of it is his daughter's window—dark as a place as you could see it from the street. He wants me to do it. Why, knowing my freedom, charm and skillfulness of tongue, he proposes that I go into the patio at midnight, when the moon is full, and make love to her for him—for the pretty man that she has seen on the plaza, thinking him to be Don Judson Tate."

"I shouldn't I do it for him—for my friend, Fergus McMahon?" For him to ask me was a compliment—an acknowledgment of his own shortcomings.

"You little, lily white, fine-haired, highly polished piece of dumb sculpture," says I. "I'll help you. Make your arrangements and get me into the dark outside window and my stream of conversation opened up with the moonlight tremolo stop turned on, and she's yours."

"Keep your face hid," says Fergus. "For heaven's sake, keep your face hid. I'm a friend of yours in all kinds of sentiment, but this is a business deal. If I could talk, wouldn't ask you. But seeing me and listening to you I don't see why she can't be landed."

"By you?" says I.

"Well, Fergus, the duenna, Francisca, attended to the details. One night they fetched me a black cloak with a high collar, and led me to the house at midnight. I stood by the window in the patio until I heard a voice as soft and sweet as an angel's whisper on the only faint, white clad shape inside; and, true to Fergus, I pulled the collar of my cloak high up, for it was July in the wet season, and the nights were chilly. And so, I thought of the tongue-tied Fergus, I began to talk.

"Well, sir, I talked an hour at the Senorita Anabela. I say 'at' because it was not with her. Now and then she would say: 'Oh, senor, or 'Now, ain't you foolin'?' or 'I know you don't mean that,' and such things as women will when they are being rightly courted. Both of us knew English and Spanish; so in two languages I tried to win the heart of the lady for my friend Fergus. But for the bare to the window I could have done it in one. At the end of the hour she dismissed me and gave me a big red rose. I handed it over to Fergus when I got home. For three weeks every third or fourth night I impersonated my friend in the patio at the window of Senorita Anabela. At last she admitted that her heart was mine."

"Why DO YOU TRY TO HIDE THOSE LITTLE PIMPLES Or Cover a Dark, Sallow, Muddy Complexion With Face Powder and Rouge."

How embarrassing it is for one to have pimples appear on face, neck, arms or hands. One little pimple may have enough—mars the attractiveness of a pretty face.

You can quickly remove pimples and other skin blemishes by touching the spot or applying Black and White Ointment. This ointment is a simple but effective home beauty treatment removes, not only pimples but clears a dark, sallow, muddy complexion, and leaves the skin soft, white and radiant.

How to Make Pine Cough Syrup at Home

There is used in nearly all prescription and remedies for coughs. The reason is that pine contains several elements that have a remarkable effect on soothing and healing the membrane of the throat and chest.

The cough syrups are combinations of pine and syrup. The "syrup" part is usually plain sugar syrup. To make the best pine cough remedy that money can buy, put 2½ ounces of Pine in a pint bottle, and fill up with home-made sugar syrup. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you make a full pint—more than you can buy ready-made for three times the money. It's pure, good and tastes very pleasant.

You can feel this take hold of a cough or cold in a way that means business. The cough may be dry, hoarse and tight, or may be paroxysmal, coming from the formation of phlegm. The cause is the same—inflamed membranes—and this Pine and Syrup combination will stop it—usually in 24 hours or less. Splendid, too, for bronchial asthma, hoarseness, or any ordinary throat ailment.

Pine is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is famous the world over for its prompt effect upon coughs.

Beware of substitutes. Ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pine" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pine Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

HEATING YOUR HOME

THE usual kindling of fire and running up and down stairs to maintain it, makes lots of work, and if servants are not available this work devolves upon members of the household. The greatest labor-saving device of the day is the

Automatic Gas Furnace

Electrically controlled by a little clock and thermostat upstairs, set the clock for seven in the morning—your house will be warm when you arise. Set the thermostat for 68 degrees of heat—the automatic device will then maintain it all day long. All you need to do is wind the little clock once a week.

The Automatic Furnace does all the work

No trip to the basement is ever necessary, yet perfect heating service is enjoyed from one year's end to the next.

The electric control is constantly on guard to insure uniformity in temperature, so important to the health of the family. The Automatic Furnace can be installed in any home.

7,000,000 HUNTERS REPORTED IN U. S.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—This is the first time in the history of the United States that the number of hunters has been reported in the Biological Survey of the Department of Agriculture. This estimate was made from reports on the number of hunters issued by the various States.

In 1919, 3,600,000 State licenses were issued, and in addition it is estimated that 3,500,000 hunters are equipped under various State provisions. The returns to the States from licenses was approximately $4,500,000, all of which was expended by the States in administration of State laws for the protection of game. This sum permits the employment of approximately 2000 salaried State game wardens and 600 fee wardens. The congressional appropriation for Federal game warden service for protection is migratory birds is $142,500, which permits the employment of only 29 salaried wardens.

At its recent meeting in Ottawa the International Association of Fish Game and Conservation Commissioners adopted a resolution calling for the issuance of Federal licenses for hunting migratory birds. The recommendation called for licenses in the form of special stamps to be issued by postmasters and attached to State licenses. It was estimated that the revenue from such licenses would amount to between $1,000,000 and $2,000,000.

YOU don't use as much of Calumet as you do of most other Baking Powders.

It has more than ordinary leavening strength. You save about half.

You don't pay a big price for Calumet. It's sold at a moderate price—that represents another saving.

You don't feel uncertain as to results. Baking never fails—because Calumet never fails below the proven standard of "Best by Test."

BEST BY TEST

It possesses the highest quality ever put into a Baking Powder. Contains only such ingredients as have been officially endorsed by United States Food Authorities.

For weeks, for months, it keeps as fresh and full of strength as the day it left the Calumet Factories, the World's Largest, most Sanitary and Modern Baking Powder plants.

Pound can of Calumet contains full 16oz. Some baking powders come in 12oz. instead of 16oz. cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

MOLE CROWDED, S. P. DECLARES

Notice was received today by Mayor John L. Davis from the Interstate Commerce Commission that his complaint against the removal of the Santa Fe railroad terminal from Oakland to Richmond is under consideration.

A conference was held yesterday between the mayor and General Manager J. H. Dyer and Lease Agent E. B. Leavitt of the Santa Fe Pacific company in which the railroad man declared that the only reason that the Santa Fe company was no longer to be allowed to share the use of the Southern Pacific mole as a terminal was because the mole is overcrowded.

"The facilities at the mole have been overcrowded for some time," Dyer told the mayor, "and with the addition of several more trains to the schedule on November 14, we are forced to unload mail and freight in unsheltered portions of the yards and are greatly delayed at times in making up trains."

With the removal of the Santa Fe from the mole to its pre-war facilities at Richmond, the Santa Fe proposes to operate only a local train from Oakland to Richmond to handle its service to this city. The mayor is fighting this plan and has asked the railroad to operate its passenger trains into the Santa Fe depot at Forty-first street and San Pablo avenue as was done before the war.

Boy Goes to Trial For Killing Father.

OGDEN, Utah, Nov. 23.—Ray Clough, 14, goes to trial in the District court tomorrow charged with having murdered his father. The boy is said to have confessed he shot his father while asleep, and that he did so because his mother told him the father had killed his brothers and sisters and would kill him. The mother was found insane and committed to the mental hospital.

PONY EXPRESSMAN DEAD.

Would Name School For Joaquin Miller

Bids for construction of the new Manzanita school were ordered referred to the district attorney by the Board of Education last night to make sure of their legality. The school, it appears, will cost between $25,000 and $30,000. The board then listened to a plea of citizens that a new school be named after Joaquin Miller, and decided to hold its regular meeting of the committee of the whole tonight, as Thursday is a holiday.

M. E. Hurley, principal of the Harrison school, was made principal of the Allendale school.

Miss Edna Bates of the principals' preferred list, was named principal of the Harrison school, and several assistant heads of departments were made heads, including Misses Christine Moore, Alice Eggers and Frances Ozier.

NO PROPER GOD

NO PROSPECT FOR LOWER PRICES OF LUMBER HELD OUT

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 22.—Prospective buyers were given no ray of hope by a lower bid for the lumbermen of the Pacific Northwest discussing market and price conditions with the United Press today.

The consensus of opinion among both wholesale dealers and manufacturers that higher instead of lower prices were in the offing.

Prices of other commodities dropped to a level where, for instance, a bushel of wheat selling for $1.25 a bushel on the farm, the lumbermen said, prices of lumber will remain where they are or go higher. Prices are in commodity prices, in which the lumbermen include labor as an item was not anticipated.

Curtained production, due to the closing down of mills, together with the fact that at present it is costing over $30 a cord to produce a cord of lumber which brings only $25 wholesale are the causes the lumbermen here are pointing to as the reason prices when the looked for building boom of next spring begins. Heavy rains and operations throughout the country due to the present housing shortage were predicted for next year.

I am unable to see how wholesale lumber prices can be maintained at the present level, John Saar, president of the State Lumber Association, one of the large producers, said. "It could only be accomplished by raising the price to $1.00 a board foot, with corresponding reductions in the cost of supplies and that is hardly within the range of possibility."

H. P. Edwards, sales manager of the Hammond Lumber Company, and

CURRENT CONDITIONS

It was explained that the present curtailment of production is due to market conditions, the domestic demand being small and foreign exchange rates having demoralized foreign trade. As a result, in the Willamette Valley of Oregon more than half the mills are closed and those which are running are working only short shifts for a day or a week.

Much the same condition is in prospect in eastern Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

PAPERS' STOCK

PAPER FACTORY

LEADS TO STOCK SUE

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—Plans for the sale of the interest of Morris & Co. packers in the stock yards and terminal facilities in such a manner as to "permit their acquisition by live stock producers and the general public," were filed today in the supreme court of the District of Columbia. Capital stock in four stock yard terminal railroad companies is involved.

The proffer is in compliance with the decree made mandatory February 23, 1920, by the court in the "live stock" packers, and the department of justice for the divorce of the packing business from stock yards and industries not directly connected with the meat business.

Edward Morris, president of the company, is the plaintiff in the suit.

could not be disposed of at present because of the financial situation, and that the stockholders had been suggested to the court that all their capital stock in yards and terminals be sold and the proceeds surrendered and cancelled, and other certificates issued in lieu thereof in the name of some trust company, as trustees, in Cold and Cold Grain until it can be sold to people outside the packing industry. "We hope that live stock men will avail themselves of the opportunity to take the yards."

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—Brisk demand today for cash wheat for export had a bullish effect on the future delivery market. On the other hand, prices for selling took place and a sharp reaction occurred, but railroads quickly asserted improved financial conditions. The price of sterling exchange were generally regarded as strengthening factors. Operating prices were higher with December 1.61 to 1.61½ and March 1.57 to 1.59, were followed by a decline to 1.56½ by the end of the day's finish and then by substantial fresh gains.

Subsequently the fact that in many quarters it was believed liquidation had been completed brought about further advances. The close was near 1.60½ on December 1.58 and March 1.59½ to 1.64.

On the 10th of December, 1914, the price of sterling rose to 1c higher, including December at 65½ to 65½c, sagged somewhat and then rose higher than before.

On 31c up, May 43½ to 43½c, eased off temporarily and then advanced with considerable vigor.

COTTON MARKET

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—The cotton market opened five points lower on December and 10 to 15 points on other months today. The market was a good seller at the start. Spot houses and Wall street houses took the offerings and sold them at a profit. The market in Liverpool were much better than had been expected. The English market was better than all other markets under further liquidation. The price of the news had continued bearish there was little to induce outside support. The market was better than it was a few minutes the local market was easier and 3 to 7 points under last night's closing. The market was better than it was a few minutes of 45 to 50 points.

TURKEY PRICES JUMP; 60 CENTS WHOLESALE NOW

Demand Encourages Dealers to Send Thanksgiving Bird Sky High.

Loss of their feathers did not prevent dressed turkeys from taking to wing and soaring to new and unexpected price levels on the wholesale market today.

From an average price of 55 cents a pound wholesale for dressed turkeys yesterday, the price today jumped to 60 cents and one dealer was found who had no difficulty in charging 62 cents for fancy birds.

To be sure turkey was to be had at 45 cents and some as low as 35 cents dressed. And good turkey, 100. One dealer is handling a carload of turkeys from Texas at these prices and is doing a satisfactory business with them.

The local turkeys—those from Woodland, Chico, Riverdale and other turkey centers—brought an average price of 60 cents a pound today after selling all last week and yesterday for 55 cents a pound.

It was expected that a price as high as 55 cents a pound would cut down consumption somewhat and making allowance for the belief plenty of turkeys were received to supply the trade.

But there has been no lessening of the demand because of high prices and it seems that more people than ever before intend to have turkeys this Thanksgiving as an indication of consumer service.

Assets of County
Total $7,556,214

This includes $690,876.43 in cash, $6,827,890.83 in taxes due and the balance in miscellaneous debts accrued. The total amount to $1,159,240.46, including warrants and vouchers payable, payrolls and interest accrued on bonds.

Cheery Eugene Patten Wants a Home—What Home Wants Him?

Orphan Whose School Cards Are Marked "Good" Asks Someone to Adopt Him

Height, five feet seven inches; weight, 125 pounds; blue eyes, light brown hair, clear complexion, good nature, polite ways, these are Eugene Patten, 12 years old, as his possessions. But he has little else.

Eugene came here from North Carolina to his uncle and aunt because his mother and father were dead and there was no home back east any more. He has attended school two terms. The uncle and aunt are Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Patten, who have been residing at 2522 Market street.

But they have seven children of their own at home and the burden is heavy. In addition to that they are forced to move.

On his report cards at school he has "good" marks for both of the terms he has attended, he says.

SEVEN DIRECTORS WILL BE NAMED

The nomination luncheon of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce will be held in the south banquet room of the Hotel Oakland tomorrow. Candidates will be named for the board of directors to fill seven vacancies those retiring this year being O. H. Fischer, W. W. Johnson, Dr. J. L. Pease, R. H. Marchant, George E. Sheldon, C. E. Thatcher and James Traverser.

Under the rules of the Chamber of Commerce, a director is elected for three years, seven retiring annually, and the board being composed of twenty-one members. A director cannot succeed himself, but must wait until a year has passed before being eligible again.

Walter D. Cole, president of the Chamber of Commerce, will preside over the nomination proceedings.

APPLETON RESIGNS.
LONDON, Nov. 22.—W. A. Appleton has resigned the presidency of the International Federation of Trades Unions.

CHEERY EUGENE
Is there anybody willing to adopt this North Carolina boy, orphaned and in Oakland? He is Eugene Patten, 12 years old.

Gets Bell's Money On Son's Assignment

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 22.—R. A. McColgan accumulated a large portion of the estate left him by Thomas Bell, multi-millionaire, by foreclosing an assignment he was advised by the defendant to make, was the burden of testimony given by Thomas F. Bell during the suit he brought against McColgan in the Superior Court. Bell alleged that he borrowed on a number of occasions from McColgan, giving assignments on his father's inheritance in payment.

PINED FOR BEATING PUPIL.
CHICAGO, Nov. 22.—Pled T. Goodier, superintendent of schools in Chicago Heights, was fined $100 and costs for beating Russell Healy, a 12-year-old pupil, with a rubber hose. He was found guilty of assault with a deadly weapon.

ANTIOCH'S WATER CASE ENDS AFTER 36 DAYS' BATTLE

Court Will Require Week in Which to Prepare Injunction Decision.

Closing a thirty-six day battle to enjoy eighteen rice growers from taking great quantities of water from the Sacramento and San Joaquin rivers, Attorney John S. Partridge, representing the town of Antioch and 101 delta land owners, today submitted the case to Superior Judge A. F. Sore.

That no ruling could be expected for more than a week and that a long written opinion will be rendered after a canvass of all arguments presented, was indicated by Judge Sore.

Summing up in his final argument evidence to support his charges that to preserve the rivers from pollution by salt, to provide 120,000 acres of land below Sacramento with irrigation and to give the town of Antioch fresh water for its citizens, at least 3500 second feet must flow past the city of Sacramento, Partridge told of conditions before withdrawing and afterward.

RECORDS GIVEN.
In 1920, Partridge declared, 4,000 second feet of water were taken out of the river by the rice men, leaving only 1500 second feet flowing past Sacramento. Records showed that in 1916-17 there was no salt at Antioch. When the amount of rice land jumped in 1918 from 40,000 acres to 80,000 acres, the salt increased from four to five parts in 100 parts.

In the Sacramento river at Rio Vista, this water was fresh until 1919, Partridge declared, when the amount of rice land went to 165,000 acres and the salt rose to 100 parts. On the San Joaquin side the water was fresh at Curtis Landing until 1919, when, due to the immense and sudden growth of the rice industry, 210 parts of salt polluted it.

Plaintiffs submitted today's argument indicated that the rice growers, besides having 155,000 acres in that crop, have 72,000 acres in other crops that will be affected. There are 120,000 acres in rice all together, but the Sutter Butte company, one of the largest growers is not included in the suit because it had been taking water for more than five years.

DIVERSION CITED.
Partridge contended that diversion of water for rice irrigation, to an amount which he said reached 4000 cubic feet per second this year, had removed the wall of fresh water which has in all past history kept the salt water of the bay out of the Sacramento and San Joaquin rivers.

Taking up the testimony of the defendant's witnesses in order, Partridge stated that each one of them had sworn in court that the extent of salinity in the lower rivers depended upon the amount of water removed for irrigation in the upper Sacramento river. He quoted Engineer C. E. Grunsky, called by the defense as testifying that if the up-river diversions had been no greater in 1919 than in 1913, the water would have been as fresh in the latter year as in the former.

The attorney then quoted evidence to show that until 1913 there had been practically no complaint as to the water at Antioch, and that fresh water had always been obtainable there.

Concluding, he said that the evidence established the removal of water up-river as the cause of the salinity; that the defendants were shown to have contributed to this salinity; and that they were therefore, enjoinable.

Richmond's Water
Rates Before Board
SACRAMENTO, Nov. 22.—The State Railroad Commission today conducted a hearing into a petition brought by Fred Meyer, owner of the Pullman Water Company of Richmond, for permission to increase his rates and at the same time took cognizance of a petition submitted by several consumers of the Pullman Water Company, petitioning the Commission to order Meyer to improve his service and lower his rates.

It is the contention of the consumers that the existing rates are too high, that the service is not up to standard and that the plant is not being properly conducted as a utility.

BANK SUED FOR ROBBER'S LOOT; CASE CONTINUED

Depositors Attempt to Recover $21,000 From Institution At Byron.

MARTINEZ, Nov. 22.—At the request of attorneys for the Bank of Byron, trial of the suit brought against that institution by Charles S. Webber to recover $21,000 for deposits who claim to have lost funds when the bank was robbed January 28, will be continued one and possibly two weeks if the consent of Judge A. B. McKenzie can be secured, it was said today.

If the suit is successful other depositors of the bank who claimed to have suffered losses will be actions, it is said. Claims against the bank would outlaw in one year.

Police Sergeant E. W. Brock found Robert Armstrong rummaging in the lockers of the bank, 305 Clay street. The prisoner admitted he had been responsible for a number of other thefts in the vicinity.

San Francisco's list is: Edwin J. Niquette, roomers in a hotel at 554 O'Farrell street, came home from a party, followed by a man. As they entered their apartment the man stepped up, drew a gun, forced them into a closet and fired through the door when they were in.

Mrs. London Routs Burglar; Booze Thieves Hold Guard

According to police reports in Oakland and San Francisco today, burglars and thieves were very busy last night.

On the part of Mrs. Reasie M. London, whose husband was the late Jack London, the novelist, and who lives at 602 Lower Street way, apparently saved her an ugly encounter. It was early evening, but dark, when she heard a noise in the kitchen of her home and saw a man attempting to jimmy a window. She boldly entered the kitchen and lit a light, whereupon the man jumped and fled.

Police Sergeant E. W. Brock found Robert Armstrong rummaging in the lockers of the bank, 305 Clay street. The prisoner admitted he had been responsible for a number of other thefts in the vicinity.

OAKLAND TO TOP STATE WARSHIP RECRUIT QUOTA

City Certain to Exceed Its Allotment in Enlistments For U. S. S. California.

Sons of Oakland bade fair to far exceed the quota given them by the government in the matter of managing the new super-dreadnaught California, in enlistments within the last twenty-four hours at naval headquarters. Twelfth street and Broadway.

The California, when completed and ready to join the fleet will hold a complement of 1800 men—all Californians. And Oakland, on a basis of population, was to present the new vessel with 86 bluejackets. It is now apparent that the city will enlist twice this number or more.
